2012 Apex is a very well rounded sled that comes with the only four stroke four cylinder powerplant in all of snowmobiling. Once you push in the throttle and feel that four stroke rush you ll know why we picked this Yamaha as one of the season s best performers.

When dialed in, it soaks up the moguls with ease, while keeping full control. This is one of the best-riding machines for a full day's ride. The seat height and firmness is nearly perfect. If destination snowmobiling is your type of riding, you cannot beat the 2012 Yamaha Apex SE.

When Yamaha sets its sights, they aim high. There's no doubt that the best-built sled on the market is a Yamaha, but the 2011 Apex takes it to the next level. We're talking power steering and 4-stroke exhaust valve technology, and neither one should be taken lightly.
