If you use one of the Ave Maria Press Teacher Wraparound Editions, you'll notice that most of the time we suggest that teachers assign reading for class as homework to free up valuable class time. The problem, as most teachers know, is that it is a challenge to get the kids to actually do the reading.

Highly disappointed As a budding theologian myself, I took issue with many of the anthropologies and and logical fallacies present in this text. Thomas Aquinas would also take great issue with this text.
