New Home Construction Contract

A Residential Construction Contract is used to establish an agreement between a homeowner and contractor to ensure both parties are protected. This document is used to cover the services provided, the compensation, the work schedule, how long the construction lasts, as well as other important things to consider before the construction begins.

Why a Construction Contract Is Important. At the most basic level, you want to get the house that was promised, and the contractor wants to get paid for the house being built. The contract serves to reflect this understanding, to make sure there is no disagreement before the actual works begins, and to provide a guide to follow in case a problem arises later. Most often your contractor will provide you with a contract that's ready for signing.
