A General Outline of Taharah Procedures

Most modern taharah manuals in use today are based on Ma'avar Yabbok, employing the same ritual elements, readings, actions and goals as those detailed there. There is no halachah for taharah. So although most Chevrot Kadisha use manuals based on the 1626 liturgy, their local customs and minhagim vary from community to community. Hence, one must not take written liturgy as law, but rather as the baseline upon which local custom is established and the vehicle through which souls are ...
