The Journalist And Murderer Janet

The Journalist and the Murderer is a study by Janet Malcolm about the ethics of journalism, published by Alfred A. Knopf/Random House in 1990. It is an examination of the professional choices that shape a work of non-fiction, as well as a rumination on the morality that underpins the journalistic enterprise.

The Journalist and the Murderer - Wikipedia

Jeff was accused of killing his wife and 2 children, after 8 long years he was convicted. Joe McGinniss wrote "Fatal Vision" about that murder and trial. Jeff then sued McGinniss for libel, a hung jury favored the murderer over the journalist, 5 to 1. This book is about the deception journalists practice on people to get "the juicy story." The book takes a broad view of deception so the story ...
